They helped to establish Los Angeles as the entertainment capital of the world and created a genre-bending sound that is influential half a century on. (Those five artists alone still draw more than 40m monthly listeners on Spotify.)

What attracted performers to the canyon? The Troubadour and Whisky a Go Go are clubs in West Hollywood, just down the hill. Folk singers tried out new material at "hootenanny nights" and hoped that record-label suits were sitting in the audience (they were). Young and broke, musicians could spend a night on the strip and

STOLEN PROPERTY

... lunch it's easy to hibernate for days without leaving the house. It's even possible ... greet sorrow with equanimity, no matter how it manifests – either as depression, bereavement, or bodily exhaustion. All these things are not just possible in winter but take on a new dimension because they dovetail with the season. Our melancholy is entangled in the space-time event we call winter. In winter people have permission to say, "I am tired now. And I am sad. I think I will lie down for a while." Such wonderful medicine it is to rest! Such beautiful dreams arise when we take our place on the sofa with the cat!

This is an extract from Midwinter. A J...
